

CALL FOR PAPERS
2015 Annual Allied Social Science Associations Meetings
Boston, Massachusetts
January 3-5, 2015

The International Association of Feminist Economics (IAFFE) invites proposals for session proposals and individual paper submissions on any area of feminist inquiry into economic issues, to include:

Gender, Monetary and Fiscal Policies
Women's Employment, Families and Austerity Programs
Deflation and Gender in a Complex Global World
Women's Employment and Central Bank Policies during the Post-Crisis Period
Economic Empowerment, Ethics and Gender Development
Gender, Microcredit and Microfinance

IAFFE is planning several sessions with other organizations. We are planning for up to three panels jointly with the Union for Radical Political Economics (URPE) and welcome proposals on feminist and radical political economic theory and applied analysis.

IAFFE also typically has joint sessions with the Association for Social Economics (ASE), National Economics Association (NEA) and the Association for the Study of Grants Economics (ASGE).

Paper Proposals

Please electronically submit a paper title and abstract of up to 250 words, along with your name and institutional affiliation, telephone, and email address to assa@iaffe.org and indicate "ASSA 2015 Proposal" in the subject line.

Please note current membership in IAFFE is required of all persons presenting papers in IAFFE sessions at the ASSA.

For any questions, contact Alicia@unam.mx Proposals for complete sessions are also welcome.

Deadline

The deadline for submissions is April 1, 2014. Acceptance notices will be sent by April 30, 2014, for IAFFE stand-alone panels.
