THE SANDY POINT CORRESPONDENCE CLUB IS A COMBINATION PEN PAL PROGRAM AND BOOK CLUB, AND WE WANT YOU TO JOIN! HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

1. Let us know you're interested by sharing with us your contact information and which Willa Cather work you'd like to read. You can pick any Cather work you want, but be aware that we might struggle finding you a pen pal if nobody else picks it. With that in mind, we encourage you to consider the novel O Pioneers!, the short story "A Wagner Matinee," or the poem "Going Home (Burlington Route)." All are available at the Willa Cather Archive (cather.unl.edu), but if you would like a physical copy, let us know, and we will get you one).

2. Read the work you've selected! While you're doing that, we'll work on finding you a reading partner. As soon as we have one lined up, we will share your partner's name and address with you.

3. Write to your partner! Of course we think you should write about the work you read, letting your partner know whether you liked it or not, but please share a little of yourself in the letter as well. In fact, we offer you this challenge: try writing about how your life relates to the work you read, which will give your partner so much to think about and respond to!

4. Mail your letter! NO emailing or other digital correspondence. We want everyone to enjoy the experience of receiving a meaningful letter in the mail. If you need stationary or postage, let us know, and we will send some to you.

5. WAIT FOR A RESPONSE FROM YOUR SANDY POINT PEN PAL. THIS WILL ALSO COME THROUGH THE U.S. MAIL, SO KEEP YOUR EYES ON YOUR MAILBOX!
